

Statesman Journal Wednesday
September 24, 2003
StatesmanJournal.com SERVING OREGON'S CAPITAL AND THE MID-VALLEY 50 CENTS

---

Recall election restored to Oct. 7
The top candidates are pleased by the court decision.
BY DAVID KRAVETS
The Associated Press
SAN FRANCISCO — A federal appeals court Tuesday unanimously put California's recall election back on the calendar for Oct. 7.

YOUNGSTER FACED DEATH BY EMBRACING LIFE
Codi Frazier's upbeat outlook inspired many.
BY SUSAN TOM
Statesman Journal
Codi Frazier, the spunky grand marshal of this year's Relay for Life, died early Tuesday. The 11-year-old, who had osteosarcoma, an aggressive bone cancer, spent the last moments of her life surrounded by family and friends at Doernbecher Children's Hospital in Portland.
Loni Barrett, Codi's

FLORAL NAMESAKE: Schreiner's Iris Gardens named "Codi's Angel Face" after Codi Frazier.

stepaunt and caregiver, said the girl lived first-class from the time that her cancer was diagnosed to the time that she died. "She got things and got to do things that children dreamed of," Barrett said. "It was a whirlwind series of activities she enjoyed tremendously. It brought a lot of love and happiness to her."

Codi's sunny-side-up outlook captivated the hearts of many during her short but full life.
"I think positive, look at the bright side," Codi said in an interview in the spring. "I want to enjoy all the moments before I die."
Gov. Ted Kulongoski, who survived a bout with cancer himself, was among those touched by Codi's courage and strength.

He invited Codi and her friends to Mahonia Hall for a slumber party. They ate waffles cooked by the state's first lady and attended the wedding of Patrick and Slush — Codi's two stuffed dogs. Oregon Supreme Court Justice Robert Durham performed the ceremony and read a poem.
Kulongoski said Tuesday

INSPIRATION: Codi Frazier, 11, grand marshal of the Relay for Life, died Tuesday after a bout with cancer.

ANDREA J. WRIGHT / Statesman Journal
SEE CODI / 2A

sept24page1

Clipped By:

Ionibarrett
Sun, Aug 4, 2019